

ARCHAEOLOGIST

Isabella Garcia

OBJECTIVE

Enthusiastic and dedicated student with a strong interest in archaeology, seeking opportunities to gain hands-on experience and contribute to archaeological research projects.

EXPERIENCE

ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELD SCHOOL, TANZANIA, SUMMER 2023

- Assisted with excavation units under the supervision of experienced archaeologists
- participated in field surveys and site documentation activities
- learned basic artifact processing techniques and helped with artifact cataloging

INTERN, LOCAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY, FALL 2023

- Assisted with archival research and documentation of historical records
- Participated in community outreach events and educational programs
- Learned about cultural heritage preservation practices and historical interpretation

PROJECTS

Research Project: Conducted an independent research project on the cultural significance of pottery styles in a local indigenous community, analyzing ceramic assemblages from archaeological sites in the region.

CONTACT

123 Oak Street

Cityville, CA 98765

isabella.garcia@email.com

(555) 987-6543

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ANTHROPOLOGY, UC SAN DIEGO (EXPECTED GRADUATION: MAY 2024)

Relevant coursework: Introduction to Archaeology, Field Methods in Archaeology, Cultural Resource Management, Archaeological Theory

Presentation: Presented findings from the research project at the university's Anthropology Department colloquium, gaining experience in public speaking and academic presentation skills.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

- Society for American Archaeology (SAA)
Student Member
- Register of Professional Archaeologists (RPA)
Student Affiliate

REFERENCES: Available upon request.

